

to do something for economic development. The city council approves it, then it goes to the vote of the people.

SENATOR NELSON: Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Senator Hartnett, please.

SENATOR HARTNETT: That's all if there is no other questions.

PRESIDENT: Okay. Senator Wesely, please. Did you wish to close on your motion, Senator Hartnett?

SENATOR HARTNETT: (Microphone not activated) ...be attached to this constitutional amendment.

PRESIDENT: Okay, the question is the adoption of the Hartnett amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the amendment.

PRESIDENT: The Hartnett amendment is adopted. You have nothing further on it, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Nothing further, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Senator Scott Moore. Senator Hartnett, would you like to move to advance the bill?

SENATOR HARTNETT: I simply move to advance this bill, this constitutional amendment.

PRESIDENT: You have heard the motion. All in...all right.

SENATOR WESELY: I have my light on.

PRESIDENT: Sure, you bet. Senator Wesely, please.

SENATOR WESELY: I'm sorry, I'd like to speak if you don't mind.

PRESIDENT: Oh, yes, well, I asked you before and you said (interruption).

SENATOR WESELY: No. Thank you. I'm sorry.
